1. A radio tube plant was being established in SHCHELKOVO (38°1'30"/55°54'30"N). Dismantled German machinery was apparently reinstalled there. It was said that German experts were employed in the plant. A power plant (Diesel Station?) had been erected in SHCHELKOVO.

2. A settlement for the German experts compulsorily contracted for labor in the plant had been constructed northeast of SHCHELKOVO. This settlement was connected with the town by a 3-mile road running through a dense woods near CHKALOVSKAY (sic; CHKALOVSK ?).
